been made to strengthen interaction with the public in the State. A State Level Advisory Council with twelve non-official prominent persons has been set-up. Efforts have also been made to associate prominent citizens in formal or informal arrangements in redressal of genuine grievances and for attending to development matters. Recently five prominent persons having political affiliations were released from detention.

The Government are keen to create favourable conditions for holding elections as soon as possible so that a representative Government can take office.

The Government is carefully watching the developments in Afghanistan and all appropriate measures will be taken to safeguard India's security and territorial integrity.
